

EUMASS Congress Strasbourg September 28 to 30, 2023

3RD ANNOUNCEMENT

REGISTRATION is open!

Full registration for our Congress includes attendance at

- The days of September 28 to 29, 2023 within the European Parliament

Hemicycle for the morning plenary
© Stocklib / Dudlajzov

- The morning of September 30, 2023 within the UNISTRA Faculty of Medicine

©ArchiWiki

- Lunches on 28 and 29 September at the restaurant of the European Parliament

Caféteria dans l'espace Tapis fleuri
©L'Agence Française

- The welcome reception at the Pavillon Joséphine, from 28.09.23

©Stocklib / Dudlajzov

- The congress dinner in the Espace Etoile of the Palais de la Musique et des Congrès 29.09.23, optional.

©Stocklib / Adrianhancu

The overall participation fee is 700 Euros if registered before July 1, 2023.

More details on the registration procedure and conditions as well as the reductions provided for students and retirees here:

<https://eumass23.europa-inviteo.com/registrations/>

Regarding more specific general information (places, map, access, accommodation, tourism) you will find them via this link:

<https://www.eumass2023.eu/fr> tab "general information"

PLENARY SPEAKERS

We will be pleased to welcome the following experts :

Prof. Alex Collie - Australie

- Work disability management

Dr Ayden Tajahmady - France

- Consequences of Covid 19 impact on daily practice; how long does it take to catch-up?

Prof. Philippe Coucke - Belgique

- Covid-19 from crisis to opportunities

Prof. Etienne Minvielle - France

- Monitoring patient in health care settings; targeted therapies, empowerment.
From standardisation to personalisation: a new deal in patients' demands.

Petra Dosenović Bonča - Slovénie

- Using population-level administrative health care data to incentivize positive change in patient care across the provider network

Prof. Dr. med. Jürgen Windeler - Allemagne

- Efficiency of new drugs introduced in health care.

Prof. Dr. Reinhard Busse - Allemagne

- Measuring health system performance: using data to improve population health.

Prof. Frederieke Schaafsma – Pays Bas

- Better work focused care for workers with chronic conditions

Lene Aasdahl - Norvège

- Return to work

Kaat Goorts - Belgique

- Screening for the risk on long term sickness absence

Ian Hoving – Pays Bas

- Implement of Cochrane Work in real-life practice of insurance medicine / Core Outcome Set (COS) for Work Participation

Prof. Mika Kivimäki - Finlande

- Does working beyond the statutory retirement age have an impact on health and functional capacity? The Finnish Retirement and Aging cohort study

Prof. Jean Sibilia - France

- The University in the global health crisis

Their presentations and summaries of their communications are only in English, here <https://www.eumass2023.eu/en/programme/keynotes-speakers>

French interpretation of these communications will be provided during the morning plenaries.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Strasbourg is a welcoming city, with an attractive hotel offer.

The Organising Committee offers you a facility through access to this accommodation platform, Revolugo, dedicated to our Congress, hotels to be booked directly.

Link to the online booking platform :

<https://platform.revolugo.com/hotels?wid=uemass-2023>

Revolugo & Magnific Escapades are the travel agencies that manage this platform for our UEMASS congress.

To benefit from the exclusive rates specially negotiated for the participants, and due to high demand during the event period, we recommend booking your stay as soon as possible

For any information or assistance, please contact Revolugo by phone : +33 (0)1 80 06 62 88 or by email reservations@revolugo.com

Your hotel bookings, as well as your data and personal information are protected and secure.

OUR CALL FOR PAPERS for the Congress resulted in the collection of many proposals, i.e. 166 !
Proofreading is in progress and the results will be returned to the authors from April 1st.

We hope to welcome many of you to Strasbourg !

The Congress Organising Committee